ORGANISERS' FOREWORD

As Gatehouse-of-Fleet prepares to open its doors once again to a vast army of competitors and supporters, the "Galloway Hills" of '88 looks set to conform pretty much to last year's pattern. Not that we, as organisers, are merely taking the easy way out; but with a successful formula to work on, there is greater scope for each official to do his own particular job that much better. Complaints last year were few, but our aim must be see them become even fewer.

Without going beyond the front cover of the regulations and programme, alert readers will observe one very significant change. For the first time in almost a decade, the Rally has a main sponsor, and the Austin Rover logo announces the support of Robertson of Dalbeattie. The "Galloway Hills" has had no more enthusiastic worker than Stewart Robertson, whether as an ordinary member of the organising committee or more recently as a very painstaking Clerk of the Course. He has relinquished this latter job to return to the driving seat as a competitor. Winner of his own event, maybe? Certainly he will not be lacking in local knowledge, and those of us who have competed against him have the greatest respect for his driving ability as well. We are enormously grateful for his support, and hope that the new image he has given to the event will bring him his due reward.

When we first moved the Rally to Gatehouse two years ago, the aim was to become integrated with the local population as harmoniously as possible, and to obtain the facilities we required without causing too much disruption. We hoped to be tolerated by a town not really used to rally folk and their ways, but instead have been positively welcomed and given every consideration from community officials, hoteliers and shopkeepers alike. If we boost the local economy just a trifle, it is no more than the town deserves for opening its heart to us as out-of-season tourists.

A list of acknowledgements for an event of this nature would be almost endless, but without being accused of favouritism we must single out our communications, medical, and rescue services for special mention. Without these we simply could not function. To all of you for looking after our bodily safety and to Robertson of Dalbeattie for curing our financial headache — a thousand thanks, and may you enjoy the day as much as we know we will.
